

Personal Statement Questions

Address the following:

- Your background: Where you are from, your family and how you arrived at the decision to enter the social work profession.
- The qualities you have that you believe will make you a good social worker.
- Your volunteer experience: The agency, your work there, what you learned about yourself and your future career. What did you observe about the treatment of clients and/or staff? What social work values are reflected in that treatment?

Your statement should be roughly four pages and should address all of the areas specified. It should be size 12 font, typed, double-spaced with 1 in. margins, and exhibit proper style and form.